

2. Shillings, Pounds & Pence

Scrooge

Lyrics by Chris Blackwood

Music by
Piers Chater Robinson
Arranged & Orchestrated by Colin Billing

Bright 2 $\text{♩} = 136$

Scrooge

I'm a gen-tle-man who's gen-tle as a gen-tle-man can

Reh. Pno.

Scrooge

be, the e - pi - to - me of what you'd call re - spect - a - bi - li - ty, I'm a man who's fair - ly

Reh. Pno.

Scrooge

fru - gal and who's care - ful to a fault, and I think that I would class me as a man who's worth his

Reh. Pno.

18

Scrooge

8 salt. But there's one thing that will put my hu - mour in - to an e -

Reh. Pno.

22

Scrooge

8 clipse, it's those lu - na - tics who go a - bout with Christ - mas on their lips. So

Reh. Pno.

27

Scrooge

8 take your seas-on's greet-ings and the joy that you dis-pense,

Reh. Pno.

33

Scrooge

8 On - ly one thing rais - es spi - rits and that's shil - lings pounds and

Reh. Pno.

38 L'istesso tempo ♩=136

Scrooge pence. The on - ly thing makes sense is

Reh. Pno.

43

Scrooge shil-lings pounds and pence. Take your stock-ings and go hang 'em, Hang those gar lands on your

Reh. Pno.

48

Scrooge fence. And go hang your-self and leave me to my shil-lings pounds and pence.

Reh. Pno.

53 Slower and more sinister ♩=66
DIALOGUE

Reh. Pno.

Tempo primo $\text{♩} = 132$

62

Reh. Pno.

67

Scrooge

Why must I be both-ered by an end-less fam-i - ly, full of gras-ping rot-ten ap-ples fal-ling

Reh. Pno.

73

Scrooge

from the fam-ly tree? They will tap you for a fi-ver, they will squeeze you for a quid and swear

Reh. Pno.

79

Scrooge

blind each time you ask them that they're sure they nev - er did. They will live the life of

Reh. Pno.

84

Scrooge

Ri-ley on the mon-ey that you earn, They will bor-row on yourname as if they've got the cash to

Reh. Pno.

90

Scrooge

burn. And when you're in the poor-house For the mis-cre-ants' of -

Reh. Pno.

96

Scrooge

fence. They'll be in the south of France with all your

Reh. Pno.

101

Scrooge

shil-lings pounds and pence. The

Reh. Pno.

105 L'istesso tempo ♩=136

Scrooge
8
on - ly thing makes sense is shil-lings pounds and pence, Re - la-tive - ly

Reh. Pno.

110

Scrooge
8
speak- ing re - la - tions make me tense, so I'd rath - er spend an eve - ning with my

Reh. Pno.

115 Slower and more sinister ♩=66

Scrooge
8
shil-lings pounds and pence!

Reh. Pno.

122 Tempo primo ♩=132

Scrooge
8
A

Reh. Pno.